champs Serge Corbin, 41, of St-Boniface de Shawinigan, Quebec, and Jeff Kolka, 39, of Grayling, paddled their way to victory July 26 at North America's richest, toughest non-stop canoe race, the Weyerhaeuser AuSable River Canoe Marathon.

Powerful partners for the past three years, Kolka and Corbin broke away from the pack of 53 teams early in the race to take a commanding lead, finishing in 14:15:47 (14 hours, 15 minutes, 47 seconds), 38 minutes ahead of the second place team.

Victory at the 51st AuSable race was a "three-peat" for Kolka-Corbin, winners in both 1996 and 1997. For more than 20 years, Serge Corbin has dominated marathon canoe racing to an extent unmatched by any competitor in any other sport.

With a variety of partners, he has amassed 53 victories in 22 years at the three major races that make up canoe racing's Triple Crown. His amazing string of victories has been compared to a single athlete winning 50 major PGA golf tournaments or 50 Grand Slam tennis tournaments over 20plus years.

With the contest for first place decided early in the race, the fans' attention was directed to four teams battling for second place.

At Cooke Dam portage, one of six hydroelectric power dams about 1/4 of the way through the race, team #71 - Bill Torongo, 36, of Roscommon and "Big Al" Rudquist, 38, of Grand Rapids, Minn. made their move to pass eventual fourth place finishers in canoe #11 - Rick Joy, 39, of Silverwood and 1995 Marathon Champ Jim Harwood, 33, of Grayling.

After the final portage at Foote Dam, about 1 1/4 hours from the finish line in Oscoda, a pair of top #80 - Patrick Lynch, 34, of sprinted and rapidly opened a short lead over the hard-charging Torongo-Rudquist team. Lynch and Marcoulier won the race to the finish line, taking second place and completing the Marathon in 14:51:14. Torongo and Rudquist finished in third position 2 1/2 minutes later (14:53:44).

Fifty-three teams started the Marathon, also known as America's toughest spectator sport. Over 30,000 cheering fans followed the race all night long, stopping at bridges and dam portages to cheer their favorites on to victory. And victory for all the competitors is simply finishing the grueling 120-mile race.

Low water conditions and temperatures in the 40s throughout the Triple Crown series.

Defending AuSable Marathon the night created dense fog on the AuSable Hypothermia, back and shoulder injuries, exhaustion and not making designated cutoff points signaled the end for 17 teams who did not finish the race.

> Finishing the race in 17th place in 16:16:50 was the team of Al Widing of Mio and Joe Pollock of Belding. At 73 years of age, Widing is widely respected among Marathon paddlers for his continuous endurance and determination to finish the Marathon. Paddling his first Marathon in 1953, Widing is a veteran of the race with 29 Marathon finishes.

> The first place amateur finishers were Ivan Paladi, 53, of Deford and Stan Anusicwiccz, 48, of Brights Grove, Ontario, who completed the course in 16:53:02. The second place amateur finishers. in 17:03:50, were Jerry Killingbeck, 29, of Tawas and Colin Hunter, 17, of Grayling. Third amateur finishers in 17:26:13, were David Sabin, 19, and Erich Podjaske, 16, both of Grayling.

> Brenda Carlson, 37, of Grayling and Lynne Witte, 44, of Mt. Clemens, finished the course in 17:48:37 to take 33rd place overall. They were the only women's entry and an enthusiastic favorite among spectators.

> The only mixed team to finish the race was Joe Shaw, 43, of Worthington, Mass. and Kathy Manizza, 40, of Mansfield, Conn., who completed the course in 23rd position (16:40:43).

First place Master finishers were Bruce Barton, 41, and Tim Triebold, 45, both of Homer, who finished 7th overall in 15:37:31. The first-place Senior Finishers were Bob Bradford, 55, of Lapeer, and Michael Johnson, 55, of Missoula, Mont., who were 18th overall in 16:17:42.

First staged in 1947, the Marathon's reputation is well paddlers from Quebec in canoe deserved as the most grueling ultra-endurance event in North Shawinigan-Sud and Denis America. Paddling at a torrid Marcoulier, 39, of Grand-Mere, pace of 60-80 strokes per minute while battling darkness, weather and the river's natural obstacles, the contestants receive limited outside assistance. Teams of "bank runners" or "feeders" meet them at pre-determined locations along the race course, passing along only food, drink and cloth-

S.T.I.N.G. operation nets $22,000 worth of marijuana

by Cheryll Ruley Staff Writer

Crawford County Sheriff Deputies were called to assist S.T.I.N.G. officers, on July 20, in an investigation that led to the arrest of one man and the seizure of 22 marijuana plants and one vehicle.

After being under investigation for nine months, the 53-year-old Grayling Township man was arrested after he had just finished watering and fertilizing a patch of marijuana located in Beaver Creek Township off of Fletcher Road.

Later that same evening, Sheriff Deputies assisted the S.T.I.N.G. officers in executing a warrant at the suspect's home, where an additional amount of marijuana was seized along with a set of scales and a police scanner.

The street value of the marijuana is estimated at $22,000.

The suspect was placed under arrest for manufacturing marijuana, a seven-year felony and/or a $5,000

Engler ticket for 1998 announced

In the same room of the Capitol where he made his announcement for lieutenant governor eight years ago, Governor John Engler announced Senate Majority Leader Dick Posthumus as his choice for lieutenant governor.

"In 1990, I had a single standard for selecting my running mate: who was the most qualified. That is the same criteria I applied to my decision this time," said Engler.

"That is why I am pleased to announce that Senate Majority Leader Dick Posthumus is my choice to be nominated at the Senate Convention, to run with me this fall, and to serve the people of the Great State of Michigan as my Lieutenant Governor.

"Dick is the most qualified, the most experienced, and he has proven himself over a lifetime. He is capable of stepping in and leading, just as he has led the Michigan Senate with distinction for the last eight years.

"And Dick Posthumus is right on the issues. He is one of Michigan's foremost tax cutters. He's been a fighter for children and quality public education. He believes deeply in reforming welfare. And he has supported smaller government, less spending, and reforms to make state government more accountable and more efficient."

"I've always been proud to call Dick my friend. Today, I'm proud to call Dick my choice for Lieutenant Governor of Michigan."

Posthumus said he was honored at the request.

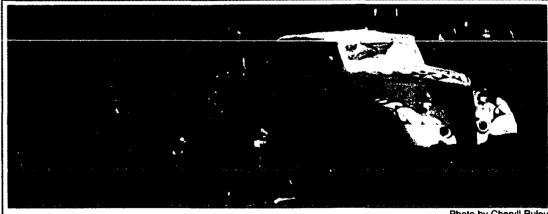

"It is an honor to be asked to join John Engler's administration, one of the truly outstanding administrations in America, and I believe, the boldest administration in Michigan history.

Over the last eight years, I have been pleased and privileged to serve with John Engler, and accomplish historic achievements such as cutting taxes 24 times, making Michigan a national leader in job creation and economic growth, reforming education, fixing a broken welfare system and passing common sense environmental legis-

Posthumus said he was excited to be a part of Governor Engler's aggressive agenda for the 21st century, including: making education quality the state's number one priority and helping all children succeed by becoming good readers; cutting the state income tax again; moving Michigan forward with more welfare reforms; and doing even more to protect Michigan's glorious natural resources by passing the Clean Michigan Initiative...

In addition to his running mate announcement, Engler announced his ticket for 1998: Secretary of State: Candice Miller; Attorney General: Scott Romney: Michigan State University Board of Trustees: David Porteous; Michigan State University Board of Trustees: Dolores Cook; Wayne State University Board of Governors: Vernice Davis-Anthony; Wayne State University Board of Governors: Elizabeth Hardy; University of Michigan Board of Regents: Jessie Dalman; University of Michigan Board of Regents: David Brandon; State Board of Education: Gary Wolfram; and State Board of Education: Eileen Weiser.

Traxler praises Grayling's emergency care after accident

BAY CITY - Former Congressman ing care provided by Dr. K. Bob Traxler was released from Saginaw St. Mary's Hospital on July 21, following an auto accident on 1-75 near Grayling, and is resting at his Bay City home.

"I know that I am a most fortunate individual, indeed," said

"I sincerely appreciate the attention of the Emergency Medical Assistance Team and the outstand-Ramaswamy, M.D. F.A.C.S., and Grayling Mercy Hospital provided so soon after my accident. The people of Grayling are blessed to have such a wonderful facility and skilled medical personnel in the area."

Traxler's injuries included the removal of his spleen, two fractured vertebrae, two fractured ribs, a bruised kidney, and slight damage to his liver.

He will be required to wear a rigid neck collar for four to six months, and his internal injuries are expected to heal within eight to ten weeks.

"I thank my friends and so many others who offered their prayers for my health and who have called to offer their support. It has helped to make a difference, and I most certainly will never forget it," said

There is power in prayer. At least Carol Bodeis of Grayling is convinced of that. Bodeis was a $4.700 grand prize winner in Glen's Markets 47th Anniversary giveaway promotion.

"I've been praying to the Lord for a way to pay off a debt so that I can afford to travel to Japan and meet my three-month-old grand. daughter," said Bodeis. "He gave me just the right amount and it was not luck... It was a blessing from the Lord.'

Bodeis and her husband attend the Luzerne Baptist Church. Bodeis said they will be tithing some of the money.

Laurine Krause, also of Grayling. won $470 in the contest. She said. "I'm not really sure what I'll do with the money. I need some car repairs done and I have a charity in mind for some of the money."

Manager of Glen's Market in Grayling, Ken Helsel, said that the chain's promotions are great for the community and is really happy that a grand prize winner was selected from Grayling.

The contests and promotions at Glen's are easy to enter. Each time you use your GVC (Glen's Valued Customer) card, you're entered into the latest GVC contest. Glen's usually runs a different contest each month.

To get a GVC card just ask for an application at the courtesy counter in the front of the store. It only takes a few minutes to fill out and the card allows you to save extra on selected items each week, besides entering the cardholder into the latest promotional contest.

Democratic candidates aim at each other

A-PLENTY — The three Democratic candidates for governor — Doug Ross, Larry Owen and Geoffrey Fieger — seem obsessed as the primary campaign reaches a climax with figuring out novel and quotable ways to slur their opponents.

The three would-be governors seem to fit one of the late Hubert Humphrey's descriptions of his party: They form a circle, and then start shooting at random.

Of course, Gov. John Engler comes in for disparagement from all three, as is to be expected. But to oppose Gov. Engler in November either Fieger, Ross or Owen first must win in August — which means, of course, that two of them must lose.

In recent round robin Democratic "debate," Mr. Fieger called one of Mr. Owen's proposals irresponsible.

Mr. Owen, at another point, said that one of Mr. Fieger's budget cutting plans was Turning to Mr. Ross, Candidate Fieger termed his senior citizen tax cut ideas "utter fantasv.'

And those are just the exchange of ideas on issues, leaving out the personal attacks.

GUESSING GAME — Political endorsements are avidly sought by most political candidates. Some get them, some

"In this day and age, endorsements don't mean much," commented Mr. Ross in another recent face-off, according to newspaper

Mr. Fieger agreed.

Of course, in the Democratic race, Mr. Owen has most of the significant endorsements including big labor, Mr. Ross has a handful, and Mr. Fieger at last count had

Added Candidate Fieger, according to the same report in the Detroit Free Press:

"The fact of the matter is they (endorsements) mean nothing... the fact of the matter is the Democratic Party doesn't exist... It's in some back room in some labor organization and the top guns in the labor organization, to keep their own positions of power within the party, manipulate, a maneuver and anoint people in back rooms and don't give a damn what the rank and file feel..." Whew! That's a load.

If Mr. Fieger should happen to win the primary, do you suppose the politically powerful Michigan union structure — which supplies both money and manpower to political friends - will pursue a Fieger candidacy with any amount of enthusiasm?

And if Mr. Fieger should be elected, how would he govern successfully, after alienating so many existing political support sys-

POLITICAL CLONE — The other shoe has dropped, and Gov. Engler officially has anointed Sen. Dick Posthumus as his running mate for lieutenant governor.

Most political observers say they knew it all along, but mighty few would predict it publicly before-hand.

The choice has been criticized as more of the same-old same-old. They are peas in a pod. Both are from outstate. Both conservative. Both out of the legislature. They share political beliefs and ideals. And, the cruelest blow of all, they are both male.

It will be the first time since 1982 that a male has run for lieutenant governor, which probably is a meaningful observation of some sort.

Republicans already have a female running this year for major state office -Secretary of State Candice Miller — which should be enough to mollify gender-ratio Democratic State Chair Mark Brewer jumped on the point. The choice of Mr. Posthumus, he said, "demonstrates that it is the Democratic Party that addresses the concerns of women.'

Steve Gools, a spokesperson for Candidate Owen, joined the verbal jousting, claiming: "John Engler has nominated his political clone."

Mr. Gools is right on the money. Mr. Posthumus has marched in lock stop with Mr. Engler all the way through their political life together, which began as students at Michigan State University and has intertwined since.

But perhaps they're just thinking ahead to the day when Mr. Engler moves either up or

EDITOR

Sheriff tells his side of County's future is at hand budget, lay-off story

To the editor.

I generally do not respond to political advertisements or letters to the editor. However, after reading The Avalanche of July 23, I decided that clarification is needed.

Bruce Bretzke, the commissioner for District 6, is simply mistaken or is guilty of intentional misrepresentation in many of his allegations.

He has stated that the county has a management problem. On that point he is correct, but the problem exists with his Board, not the Sheriff's Office, which he is trying to make a scapegoat for the commissioners' shortcomings.

The Sheriff's Office has been within its budget, set by the Crawford County Board of Commissioners. In fact, my office actually has run in the "black" for the following reasons: housing inmates, billing prisoners and nontaxpayers for services rendered by the Sheriff's Office. I believe this is good management.

I take exception to the 6th District Commissioner who is using scare tactics by stating that homes will be lost if a millage is voted in. I believe the voters are smart enough to figure out if they can afford a law enforcement millage or if they want it. It took a petition drive to convince the county board members to place this matter on the ballot (Mr. Bretzke and Mr. Smock voting "no"), so that taxpayers could decide if they wanted adequate law enforcement protection after the failure of the Board to manage the county finances in a responsible manner.

The advertisement in The Avalanche on July 23 misquotes me as far as what I said at the Board meeting regarding lay-offs. In fact, there are two positions - one a road patrol deputy and the other an animal control officer - which have not been brought back from lay-off, together with a clerk who was shared between the Sheriff's and Prosecuting Attorney's offices.

Two officers were brought back to work marine patrol as a result of generous donations by many people and organizations. These two marine deputies (previously laid-off road deputies) will again be laid-off after Labor Day, or whenever the funds run out.

The Board of Commissioners then does an about face and hires back two courthouse employees after the Treasurer advised them not to do so, further depleting the financial resources which they have advised must be restored.

The old practice of bloodletting to cure the patient went out decades ago, a concept some of our Board members appear to have failed to recognize. It's time for everyone to start making tough decisions to solve difficult problems and stop wasting time taking "cheap shots" at everybody to deflect criticism from themselves.

The August 4 primary election will determine not only the future level of public safety services in Crawford County, but perhaps the future of this community, period.

Whether your special interest is protection for yourself, family and property, or economic growth and an expanded tax base to share the cost of county services, the two public safety proposals to be voted on August 4 have your name on them.

Our economy will never expand with an infrastructure so disabled that we don't even have the basic services necessary to keep lives and property safe. Imagine trying to sell this community to a business or industry while we're without 24-

'We need a problem-solver, an experienced business person and more importantly someone who understands the issues our county is immersed in.

We need someone who has served the citizens who retire and grow older here, someone who has cleaned up and invested in the future of our county.

That person is Barbara A. Selesky.

I have known Barbara for a long time and I feel she would accomplish whatever she is after, because the service she provides daily for our citizens now is heart-felt.

I urge you to vote for Barbara A. Selesky.

Shippy questions ethics of marine patrol assignment in response to Mrs. Corlew's letter of July 23 - I have no doubt your husband's recent employment as marine patrol officer was legal. I also have no doubt it was unethical and a slap in the face to every taxpayer in Crawford County.

To the editor.

I was unable to confirm any advertising of the position or any request to use Kirtland College's criminal justice program.

> Fred T. Shippy Grayling

Therefore, two laid-off officers are filling in and will be furloughed again when these senior officers return. Mathematics confirms personnel is down. Where there were four, there are now two officers. Two other laid-off deputies are temporarily working marine patrol, but only through support of many organizations donating money and a small portion the county dedicated through a 5 "Yea" to 1 "Nay" (by Bretzke) vote to cover the marine season. The county isn't paying them or their benefits because the sheriff's budget has been slashed.

The Sheriff's Department also lost a half-time secretary.

You have no animal control officers, you have no detective and you have no 24-hour road patrol. These are the facts.

Please, voters, talk to your sheriff or the Concerned Citizens for a Safe Community Committee, not commissioners who created the problem or others who are distorting the facts to get elected.

Four-year-old LaMotte saves the woods

To the editor,

A few days ago my four-year-old grandson saved our woods from burning down.

He came into the house and said, "Dad, the woods are burning."

Dad said, "Oh yeah, Ed." Then Dad thought Ed looked serious and got up and said, "Gosh, it really is burning."

He came in and called 911. Within minutes there were three fire trucks, two squad cars, DNR and two bulldozers.

After the fire was put out, Ed got to shake hands with all the officers and firemen. The officers congratulated him and told him how proud they were of him.

I agree with Mr. Park, whose letter appeared in the July 8 issue of The Avalanche. Mr. Bretzke has proven himself to be a master at 'double talk.' He says there isn't a budget problem, but voted to lay off deputies to cure that non-existent problem. He says it's a management problem, and being a manager with four years of tenure, he should know.

Mr. Bretzke isn't alone. How about Commissioner Smock? On the very day a Traverse City police officer was being gunned down without benefit of a bullet-proof vest, Mr. Smock voted "No" on the Sheriff's request to replace our officers' obsolete protective vests. What madness.

Perhaps we should send out our officers, without back-up, wrapped in Saran Wrap and armed with sling shots. What a travesty.

I read From Our Corner in the July 2, 1998, edition of the Avalanche and I'm still trying to figure out the reason for such odd ram-

Col. McConnell is doing a fine job of bettering military/resident relations. Why do you have a problem with that?

Dan Alstott has been a North Branch property owner since 1974 and became a permanent resident in 1987, not 1997 as you stated. If you would check records rather than trusting your memory, you would know that the summer training exercises escalated greatly in the very late 80s and early 90s, after Dan became a permanent North Branch

I would like to see the figures that substantiate a $20,000,000 contribution to this county's economy by the National Guard.

Unity accomplishes solutions to problems. The most recent example of this is the funding for the North Down River Road -- I-75 interchange. Your editorial reminds me of the grumblings over a disparaging article in a Detroit paper a number of years ago -- which pointed out how awful that interchange is.

Wanted: fiscally responsible board of commissioners

To the editor,

I don't know about you, but as a citizen of this County and a taxpayer, I feel totally frustrated with what is occurring as a result of the actions of our County Board of Commissioners.

These people have proven that they are not capable of running a multi-million dollar county government. Even Mr. Smock acknowledges this by stating he is for a County Controller. Too little, too late. That should have been done

A board that will not vote themselves high salaries, per diem, health insurance and retirement benefits. A board that will not give certain employees' a hefty raise while denving - even decreasing - other employees' wages who had more seniority

A board that does not spend top dollars to renovate the county building and install a security system that is not even used. Why did this county spend all that money for this system so our courtrooms and county building would be secure and then leave all the doors wide open and lay off our police officers? Is that what they call security?

I believe in accountability and that one must take responsibility for one's actions. This board must be held accountable and replaced. They were elected by the people to work "for" us, not set themselves up as God and line their own pockets, foolishly spend money for things never used, and then claim poverty and lay off law enforcement.

Where are their heads? Certainly not on their shoulders. This Board of Commissioners has had its chance to help Crawford County and failed miserably. Let's not give them another chance to do us even more harm.

Citizen suggests Guard Recent letter angers Vote for Corlew! long-time resident

I normally read the letters to the editor and have discussions with my co-workers about the letters. I have never had a desire to write one until now. The letter I just couldn't let go by unanswered, "Guard's presence stunts growth," July 16, 1998.

This letter made me so angry!

What else can you try to pin on the Guard? Is it the Guard's fault that there are no decent restaurants? NO, of course not! I have thought for years, if Grayling had a good steak house it would be packed with Guards. They to love to eat out after two weeks of military food.

If it is the Guard that is stunting Grayling's growth, then tell me why towns like Norfolk, V.A.; Chicago, Ill.; DesMoines, Iowa; and Manhatten, Kan., to name just a few, haven't been stunted? These towns also have strong military presence.

What is stunting Grayling's growth is, in my opinion, the smalltown mentality of the city planners who won't let new business in.

It seems to me that, the people that are complaining the most are the retired persons who have moved here from down state and have already made their living. The Guard has been in this area for a very long time, and these people that used to think it so neat to come up and see the tanks and Guardsmen in training should have checked around for real-estate not so close to the

I have lived in Grayling for twenty years and I wouldn't even know the guard is around if it weren't for the occasional helicopter that goes over the house or for seeing the military vehicles in town.

My husband and I, kayak and have been down the AuSable River. We have never been detained or bothered in the least by the Guard!

We have, on the other hand, been bottled up on the river by tourists and seen lots of trash thrown out by the nature-loving tourists. I personally have had more problems with the tourists than I have ever had with the Guard, traffic jams and crowded grocery stores.

I must tell you that my husband also works for the Guard. Now I want to talk about making a living. The Guard is one of the few jobs that pays more than five dollars an hour which seems to be top pay in Grayling.

Frankly, we cannot live on a job that pays five dollars an hour. Not only Camp Grayling has full-time employees, but also M.A.T.E.S. has full-time employees; and these employees have to be members of the Guard in order to have the fulltime job. Because of the job we live in Grayling and pay taxes, buy groceries, and have kids that go to school. Therefore we bring a lot of money into the community also. If you take the Guard out of this community, you take jobs out of this community. In my opinion without the Guard, Grayling would just be a gas stop for people going to Traverse City.

Darlina Welt Grayling

Maybe Grayling just isn't your cup of tea

To the editor.

Have you considered the possibility that you live in the wrong county? If you were not aware that Crawford County was a Military Camp or that the State and Federal Government own the largest portion Debra Weaver of land, then you did not do your research.

If you had, then you would know that we must live with the unpleasant things that go along with being a military training facility and that we as taxpayers would be required to pay the large taxes as whole to compensate for the majority that is not erty and have no problem with this. I choose to live in Grayling because my family has lived here for generations and it has been a safe and pleasant experience for me. I knew full well when I moved back to Grayling from a large city that these were things I would be facing.

What I can't fathom is how someone can complain about something that has been common knowledge and move here expecting something

If you don't like living in a small town with little growth and paying the taxes that go along with the luxury of living here then maybe you have chosen the wrong place to call home or purchase property!

Personally I am tired of having my Hometown put down.

If you have nothing nice to say, maybe you should not say anything at all. This is a free country after all, 'and you might consider finding some place else to call home.

critic of the County Commissioners asked which of the present commissioners "could fill (Rep.) Allen Lowe's shoes?"

The Bible Speaks

Mass Murder

On November 2, 1972, we wrote an article in the Avalanche entitled: "Abortion - The First Step in Mass Murder." We warned about the history of killing in Germany. We said, "Hitler did not start the senseless murder of human beings in Germany, he only extended the logic of that which was already there. The first gas chambers were built in State Mental Hospitals. Next, they went to the homes for defective children, then the prisons, the nursing homes and finally out into the communities. Hitler killed 300,000 fullblooded Germans before he ever touched a Jew. Having determined that defective life had no right to exist he labeled the Jewish race as defective and the horrible murder of six million Jews began.'

We attempted to warn people over a quarter century ago that abortion would open Pandora's box for more extended killing in America. We wrote, "Some of you are becoming angry. You feel your intelligence is being insulted to think that someone would even imply that such horrible things could ever happen in America." We warned you of euthanasia, infanticide, and suicide to follow. We forewarned you of the use of live and aborted human babies in research. A quarter of a century ago we quoted the benefits being claimed by those pushing for the use of live babies rather than monkeys in the development of vaccines. Such a change we were told would mean, "...an end to senseless slaughter of monkeys whose cells are now widely used in vaccines." We said then, "Yes, when you put a relative value on human life, you start a movement which can go only one direction down." Events transpiring over the past 26 years have shown the Biblical perspective to be logical, reasonable, and

The solution we gave in 1972 is still relevant today! "The abortion question is just one of many moral questions of our day that have arisen with the rejection of absolute moral standards. The real answer to all these questions goes back to a simple faith in the Bible. We believe the Bible as originally written to be the inerrant, infallible word of the Living God. Therefore, we believe without apology, that whatsoever the Bible says is so. The Bible is our only compass in a wilderness of subjective relativity. Bible believing Jews before Christ, and Bible believing Christians since Christ have always rejected completely abortion on demand." The scripture we quoted from Jeremiah is still true: (Jeremiah 8:9) "The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and what wisdom is in them?" These wise men still hate the question we said they avoided in 1972, "Does an abortion take the life of another Person?

What will the next generation bring? If America repents the following will happen: (2 Chronicles 7:14) "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will foreive their sin, and will heal their land." If America continues to sin against God and to reject His Word: (Psalms 9:17) "The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God." The time is short!

New housing to be built in Grayling

State Housing Development Authority (MSHDA) and USDA Rural Development was announced July 21, at ground breaking ceremonies for 48 new elderly and family housing units in Grayling.

In addition to representatives from MSHDA and USDA Rural Development, the developers, representatives from Citizens Bank in Grayling, and local officials were all on hand to break ground for the two new developments.

"Today marks the beginning of an important effort in rural Michigan to address the need for affordable housing," MSHDA's David Mehelich as he presented giant-sized checks to developers, P.J. Grayling Senior LP and P.J. Grayling Family LP.

"Our partnership with USDA Rural Development is an example of how state and federal financing efforts can benefit those most in need of assistance, particularly when it comes to providing affordable housing."

The partnership initiative between the two agencies was signed back in October of 1997, according to USDA Rural Development's state director Donald Hare.

"The effort to provide the Grayling area with affordable housing is a result of a partnership financing agreement signed last October between MSHDA and USDA Rural Development," Hare

"We both share a common interest and goal in helping rural Michigan residents attain safe, decent, and affordable housing."

MSHDA's Mehelich presented an oversized check in the amount of $461,999 representing the Authority's commitment Whispering Pines Apartments, a 24-unit elderly housing development. A second check totaling $461,905 was presented for the financing of Grayling Pines Apartments that will provide affordable housing for 24 families.

USDA Rural Development will provide $466,209 in loan funds for the development of Whispering Pines and $487,793 for Grayling Pines upon completion of the projects. Interim financing for the construction of the 48 units will be provided by Citizens Bank in Grayling.

The two complexes will be constructed on Meadows Drive and are expected to be completed by spring of 1999.

Whispering Pines plans to have 20 one-bedroom and four two-bedroom units. Grayling Pines will have eight one-bedroom and 18 two-bedroom units.

AGENCY ON AGING

The Region 9 Area Agency on Aging is sponsoring a three-day regional training for new Medicare Medicaid Assistance Program (MMAP) Counselors.

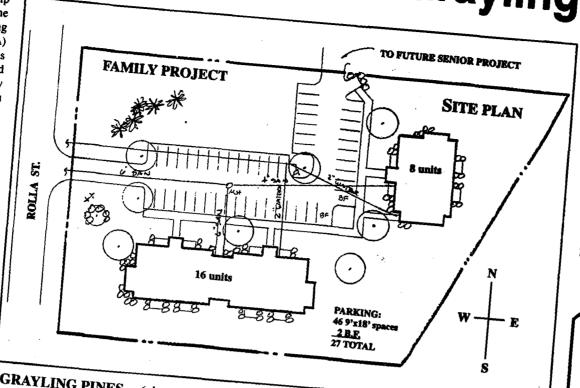

The training will be held August 13, 14 and 20 in Gaylord for new volunteers. Attendees completing the three-day training will be certified as MMAP Counselors.

Volunteers who are trained specialists in the areas of Medicare and Medicaid health insurance issues. The volunteers provide assistance to senior citizens in the various aspects of health insurance and problem resolution specifically Medicare, Medicaid, Medigap, and long-term care insur-

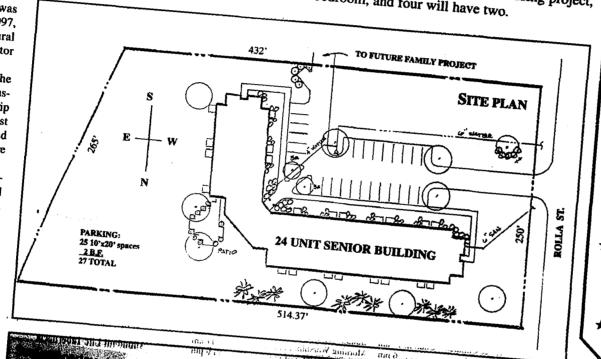

MMAP Counselors are presently needed all over northern Michigan. The MMAP program has been helping seniors since 1993.

The program is sponsored by the Region 9 Area Agency on Aging through the Northeast Michigan Community Service Agency (NEMCSA).

If you would like to become a MMAP Counselor or would like more information, call (517) 356-3474 or (800) 803-7174.

MILITARY NEWS

Marine Private Jeremiah B. Kohnert

Marine Pvt. Jeremiah B. Kohnert, son of Donald E. Kohnert of Grayling, recently completed basic training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

Kohnert successfully completed 12 weeks of training designed to challenge new Marine recruits both physically and mentally.

Kohnert and fellow recruits began their training at 5 a.m. by running three miles and performing calisthenics. In addition to the physical conditioning program, Kohnert spent numerous hours in classroom and field assignments which included learning first aid, uniform regulations, combat water survival, marksmanship, hand-to-hand combat and assorted weapons training. They performed close order drill and operated as a small infantry unit during field training.

Kohnert and other recruits also received instruction on the Marine Corps' core values — honor, courage and commitment, and what the words mean in guiding personal and professional conduct.

Kohnert and fellow recruits ended the training phase with The Crucible, a 54-hour team effort, problem solving evolution which culminated with an emotional ceremony in which the recruits were presented the Marine Corps Emblem, and were addressed as "Marines" for the first time since boot camp began.

Kohnert joins 41,000 men and women who will enter the Marine Corps this year from all over the country.

Election day for Michigan lawmakers may really be Aug. 4

by Charles Owens, State Director, National Federation of Independent Business/Michigan

One of the traditional rites of fall is the November election. But in 1998, voters — especially Michigan small-business owners - need to rethink "Elections as usual," because our new state law on term limits will force many state representatives to step down from their current posts.

On the next ballot in the upcoming Aug. 4 primary, we're likely to find a host of new and unfamiliar candidates for state office. The 1998 elections promise to be "anything but usual."

Especially in local districts where one political party is particularly strong, voters will need to be on their toes during the political party primary election. It is on Aug. 4 rather than the general election in November - when the future composition of the Michigan General Assembly may well be determined.

It is almost certain that Michigan's new term limits law will withstand any challenges to its consitutionality. The law limits state House members to three terms and. as a result, no less than 64 current House members are ineligible to run again in 1998. (State senators will be affected by new term limits beginning in 2002.)

primary should be a wake-up call to small-business owners who may not yet be familiar with candidates or their positions on small-business

In surveys by America's largest small-business advocacy group - the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB) - small-business owners have consistently supported the concept of term limits for legislators. But as the adage goes,"Be careful what you wish for - you may get it." If term limits are to succeed as a mechanism to make our elected officials more accountable, smallbusiness owners need to follow through. How? By selecting and supporting candidates and voting in the party primary elections.

The purpose of the party primary election is to determine who will represent the respective parties (in most districts, the Democratic and Republican parties) in the general election held in November. This year, however, in many of the "open" State House seats (where the current representative is ineligible to run due to term limits), a number of candidates are in effect vying to be the sole Democrats or Republicans

With less than a month to go, the to appear on the November ballot. In districts that are "Solid" Democratic or Republican - meaning one party traditionally dominates - winning the primary election in August is a virtual guarantee of victory in the later November elec-

This is particularly significant when you consider that voter turnout in primary elections is traditionally less half of the turnout in the November general elections. The actual number hovers around 20 percent of all eligible voters, meaning only 20 percent of the voters are deciding for everybody who will represent the district!

This fact is not lost on the professional politicians. They know that in a solid Republican district, it is unlikely that a candidate running as a Democrat will win the election in November and likewise for a Republican running in a solid Democratic district. So why not win the election in August and avoid the problem in November?

Party Labels Tell Less About 1998 Primary Candidates

Under term limits, and particularly in this year's primary, party labels may not be accurate guides to the positions a candidate will take on the issues. Voters who traditionally expect a Republican or Democrat to vote a certain way based on party affiliations may be rudely surprised. For example, in some districts, candidates who have run as Democrats in past elections are now running this year as Republicans in the party primary election in a solid Republican district. The same situation may apply in some solid Democratic districts.

This is where the stakes for smallbusiness owners become very critical. Do you vote in primary elections? Do you know where the candidates stand on small business issues? As a voter and businessowner, you need to do some homework and then cast your ballot in the party primary of your choice. If you are unable to vote in August, obtain an absentee ballot from your local election official. (In many districts, the election official will be the township clerk where you reside.)

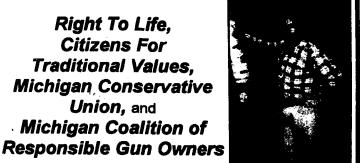

Small-business owners got their wish - term limits are here. But unless we follow through and take an active part in the August primary, we may get some results we really didn't bargain for!

North Country Lodge to rent duplexes

by Caleb Casey Staff Writer

North Country Lodge in Grayling will soon have a pair of duplexes available for rent.

"It's something new we're trying," said North Country owner Judy Craft. "We know that there's a need for housing in Grayling, and we've been thinking about doing this for a while now.'

The modular duplex structures, which come in two halves, have been brought in and are now in the process of being fused together.

"Eventually we'll have garages and decks on the back," said Craft. The housing units contain a decent size kitchen and bathroom, as well as a pair of bedrooms.

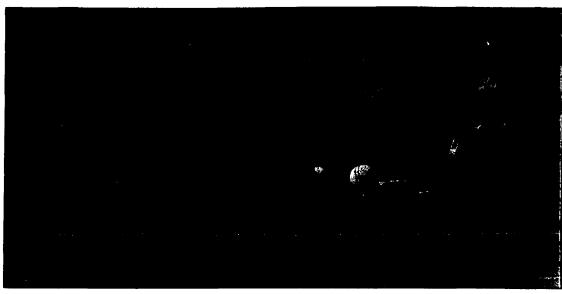

The duplexes have central air, and will include washer and dryer. According to Craft, North Country Lodge plans to rent the units for $550 a month before the garages are put in, and $595 after.

She said that they will be available for rent soon, "hopefully by the end of next month or before,"

Right now there are two struc- housing units.

Crawford County Law Enforcement Millage Proposal Facts, Questions and Answers improvements.

What are we voting for? 1.75 mills for Public Safety

What will this millage provide?

- 24 Hour Sheriff's Patrol
- Animal Control Officer Marine Patrol
- Snowmobile Patrol
- Off Road Vehicle Patrol
- Detective Services as a read relative
- Underwater Search/Rescue Team

Does Crawford County have too many Deputies?

NO. The Sheriff's Office has eight (8) current road officers for patrol, two (2) of which are state funded secondary road patrol and three (3), the probate court community liaison, juvenile violence and narcotics officers which are also state and federally funded

Are the services that have been cut in the Sheriff's Office necessary?

 With a growing population, 24 hour Sheriff's Patrol is needed to provide Crawford County residences with the service and protection they have been afforded in the past.

Crawford County citizens benefit from tourism. The services of our marine, ORV and snowmobile officers are crucial for ensuring the safety and welfare of residents and tourists alike. The D.A.R.E. Program, juvenile violence officer and probate court com hol use, delinquency and juvenile violence in young adults. The detective position affords the department with the kind of follow up support and in depth investigation that historically has shown to bring the offender to justice.

munity liaison officer positions are great tools in reducing, drug and alco-

Why is the millage proposal necessary?

Over the past 10 years the cost of county services has risen. However, revenues have not kept pace. The county reserves have been depleted to cover the increased costs. Thus, causing this situation. In short, Crawford County, which according to 1990 census figures is one of the fastest growing areas in Michigan, needs to generate more revenue due to our lower state equalized property values (SEV). This proposal will allow the county to keep pace with the rising costs and allow the sheriff's office to continue to provide the citizens of Crawford County with the same level of services they have been receiving over the past several years.

Was the Sheriff's Office operating within its budget? YES. Annual audit available at the Treasurer's Office.

How was the 1.75 mills decided?

Crawford County Sheriff's Office was 39% of general fund revenue (county budget). The annual audit issued by Anderson, Tackman & Co, PC

(and report issued by prior auditors) verify the short fall of revenues vs. expenses. The auditor recommended that the sheriff office be no more than 30% of the general fund revenues. If you take 30% of the GFR plus the 1.75 millage, it will take us back to what we had prior to the May, 1998 layoffs. The Sheriff's office is currently about 33% of GFR. Which may be reduced to 30% next year regardless of the outcome of this millage pro-

Why was the Sheriff Office Budget at 39% and how does that compare the counties surrounding us? To agoir bluow soo on tank to boso Crawford County Sheriff's Office has been the primary police presence in the county other than Grayling Police Officers. In counties where the Sheriff's Office is a lower percentage, those counties have township police and Michigan State Police posts. Thus, spreading the workload over more

Some police agencies seem to have many officers while others not as many. What is the national average of Police Officers to population and what is Crawford Counties officer to population ratio?

The national average is 2.2 police officers per 1000 population. Currently Crawford County including the City police officers is .9 per 1000. (Based on estimated population of 13,500.) In addition Crawford County is 576 sq. miles. The Sheriff's Office, at full strength has two (2) road patrol officers per shift to cover the entire county.

Are we unique in Michigan in asking for a millage for sheriff office or

NO. There are quite a number of counties that have a law enforcement millage. Some examples of these are: Roscommon, Missaukee, Wexford, and Benzie Counties.

Did the building of the Jail addition cause the budget crises? NO. The financing was accomplished through a $300,000 grant, $600,000 in bonds and the balance came from monies in the construction fund which was generated from the sale on the landfill. We could only house 20 inmates maximum before the addition and we vary in our own inmate count, but the average is around 26. We would have been paying to house those additional at approx. $35 per person, per day - plus medical expenses. Now that we have the additional space, we do not have that expense. The Jail also houses additional immates from other counties with additional revenues averaging $200,000 per 12 month period which is put into the general fund.

Will this miliage be needed after 5 (five) years?

There are too many variables to answer this question, i.e. calls for service, natural disasters, economic growth, new housing, and any laws affecting

What is the current manning level of the Sheriff's Office Road Patrol and Marine Patrol?

The Sheriff's Office is currently below the manning level, prior to layoffs.

The Sheriff's Office consists of eight (8) persons dedicated to the road patrol, two (2) of which the Sheriff's Office receives special funding to perform traffic service, i.e. speed enforcement, accident investigation and safety education. The Sheriff's Office receives approximately 50% of their funding through a state grant. Thus 50% of the two (2) road patrol officer's positions needs to be spent on those duties or that funding source will be lost. These eight (8) deputies are the officers which handle all general, non-grant, specific day-to-day calls of the Sheriff's Office.

The Sheriff's Office scheduled shift is as follows. (Iwo (2) persons work and 7:00 am to 3:00 pm with staggered days off. Three (3) persons work from 12:00 noon to 12:00 midnight. Does this mean they are available for road duties at all times? NO. Vacation, personal or training time may take one or more from the schedule. Also to be included are duties of court time, transporting inmates from the jail to and from the doctor or hospital and transporting prisoners to prison or picking up warrant arrests at other jails and court officer functions.

Although the Undersheriff and I try to handle as much as we can, these required activities take away from our road patrol.

The Sheriff's Office has special funding for four (4) positions and two (2) seasonal marine positions. One (1) deputy is dedicated to Probate Court and his funding is solely for adjudicated juvenile and associated cases. Another deputy is funded through a juvenile violence prevention grant in which that deputy can only perform duties associated with that grant, not the general road patrol duties.

arine funding. The Sheriff's Office acquir funds from many agencies, i.e. townships, lake and river property owners, canoe liveries and a State marine grant. These funds combined to allow us to recall two (2) previously laid off deputies and through a concession of police labor union allowed two (2) seasonal deputies hired while there were still deputies laid off. These four (4) positions have a big responsibility of covering the rivers and lakes in Crawford County; however, while performing their duties as in the case of the previously mentioned juvenile grant funding, they are restricted to marine Currently the Sheriff's Office has on lay off a road position, an animal control officer and a clerk shared between the Sheriff's Office and the Prosecutor's Office. When the marine program is completed, the end of the summer, the two (2) recalled officers will, once again, be laid off.

The schedule I am running, currently affords county officer law enforcement coverage during the highest calls for service (by previous year's analysis) and because of labor contracts this saves many dollars in over-

I hope this explains the manning and scheduling for Crawford County Sheriff's Office. Other services which will be cut, if a millage fails, are listed in the above question and answers.

Show your support by voting YES to maintain safety and public well being in Crawford County.

Law Enforcement services; such as 24-hour Sheriff's Patrol and D.A.R.E. are essential elements towards crime prevention and are extremely effective proactive methods in police protection.

As dedicated professionals, your Crawford County Sheriff's Office employees are committed to providing the best service possible. Our ability to provide proactive protection will be severely reduced without the passage of this millage.

County Ballot Proposal

August 4, 1998 Crawford County Michigan

Shall the 15-mill limitation upon the total amount of general ad valorem taxes imposed upon real and tangible personal property for all purposes in any one year under the Michigan Constitution be increased in the County of Crawford, Michigan by 1.75 mills (which is equal to $1.75 per $1,000 of taxable value of all such property) for a period of 5 years, 1998 through 2002, inclusive, for the purpose of supplementing the County Sheriff's office budget and funding 24-hour road patrol, which increase will raise an estimated $612,500 in the first calendar year of the increase?

Hulbert's dedication earns recognition

SENIOR VOLUNTEER HONORED - Rep. Allen Lowe presents Eva Hulbert with a recognition award at a surprise luncheon in her honor at the Commission on Aging, July 14.

by Cheryll Ruley Staff Writer

Eva Hulbert walked hurriedly into the Commission an Aging's (COA) dining room on July 14, after being told she had an important phone call in the office.

When she noticed that the crowd was looking at her and cameras were pointed in her direction, Eva asked, "What's going on here?"

After being pinned with a corsage, Eva, still looking puzzled, was led over to Rep. Allen Lowe, who read to her a certificate recognizing Eva for her many years of dedicated, volunteer service.

Eva was a little choked up, but managed to say, "When I first started this volunteering, my late husband said that no one would notice my work. I wish he was here to see this!"

Eva has been a volunteer under every director since the COA's inception. Over the years she has been an outreach worker in Frederic and Maple Forest Township, a fill-in delivery driver and assistant to the cook for Meals on Wheels, transported patients to doctor appointments for RSVP, delivered commodities, instructed craft projects for COA, is active in the Senior Companion Program, pays visits to the hospital, Mercy Manor and The Meadows of Grayling, and is a hospital emergency room companion.

"As an emergency room companion, I keep the patient company until a family member or friend arrives. No one should be alone at a time like that," Eva remarked.

An active member of her church, she is always willing to organize meals for weddings and funerals and sees to it that cards are sent out to express congratulations or condolences.

"I am open 24 hours. Just call me if you need something," said Eva. "I just love my work."

"The good Lord gave me good health. If I didn't have Him. I don't know where I'd be," she concluded.

"Fighting for Fairness" in the future . . .

On January 1,1999, we in Northern Michigan-from Saginaw Marquette-will have all new representatives. It is truly imperative that those whom we elect this year truly understand the issues which are impacting all of our lives and who are willing to make certain that our voices are heard in Lansing.

turn of the century will be the reapportionment of our State's legislative districts. As the fastest growing region in Michigan, the "fight for fairness" will take on new meaning. The results of this process will have an effect on us for the next decade.

Since 1995 I have been actively involved in and outspoken on issues at the local, regional and state level. I am ready, willing and able to continue my efforts on your behalf. into the new century. I need your help to do so at the polls: on August 4, 1998, and November 3, 1998.

National Forests to undergo fee demonstration program

by Caleb Casey Staff Writer

In late July and early August Huron-Manistee Ranger Stations will be conducting small media tours in area National Forests.

The tours are part of the process involved in collecting outside input regarding the Recreation Fee Demonstration Project or "Rec Fee Demo,"

In the past Congress has controlled money appropriations to the National Forests. According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), funding for the Huron Manistee National Forest has declined by about 37 percent over the last five years.

This decline in budget funding, combined with increased demand on the Forest areas, brought about the al agencies: the Bureau of Land Management, the National Park Service, and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Congress authorized the National Forest Rec Fee Demo "Pilot program" in 1996 in order to "collect fees, improve maintenance on sites, and better serve the customers during a period of declining budgets."

Various fee changes have been proposed with regards to the Program, and they have been changed and modified as needed in an attempt to respond to public and business sector concerns.

Currently, the proposed fees to be established for the Rec Fee Demo Program would include parking passes, and Pere Marquette and Pine River watercraft permit and reservation fees.

Also, Kirtland Warbler guided tours would cost $5.

The Forest Service says that "the majority of the proposed project centers around fees charged for parking at designated facilities." The current proposal would set daily parking passes at $3, weekly at $5, and annual at $20.

The Pere Marquette and Pine River watercraft passes would be "$1 per watercraft per day." Reserving permits for the two waterways will cost $2.

Additionally, "a reservation fee of $2 will also be required when reserving dispersed camping sites on the AuSable River."

Passes would be available at "Forest Service sites," Ranger Stations, and any area businesses that wanted to sell them.

It should be noted that the fees will not affect all National Forest areas, only specially designated ones.

"It's not for every little spot," said John Ericson of the Mio Ranger District. "It's for places where maintenance is needed, and for the more developed sites."

Unlike the current system, the majority of the fees collected after the Rec Fee Demo is implemented improving the National Forest recreational areas. Right now the money collected at federal forest areas is put into the National Treasury and then appropriated by Congress.

Under the Rec Fee Demo, "80% of the fees generated will be returning to the Forest for activities such as maintenance of recreational facilities, increased customer services, interpretation and education, law enforcement, and resource protection," according to the UDSA Forest

"We think that the public will have better facilities and more facilities," said Loren Ford of the Mio Ranger District, Huron-Manistee National Forests.

Ford and Ericson said that money could be used specifically to pay for such things as: the pumping of pit toilets, garbage services, fire rings, grading, graveling, hand pumps, bulletin boards, and larger improvement projects.

According to the Forest Service, money could also be used to: repair walkways, "keep ranger stations open on weekends and during high use periods," repair vandalism dam-will be used in maintaining and age, "replace bridges," improve accessibility, "resolve erosion problems," and offer more signs, brochures and maps.

The USDA Forest Service claims that it "is unable to maintain (its) current level of facilities, services and staff, unless an increase in funding allocation occurs."

The Forest Service says that some things it may have to eliminate in some areas include: "staff reductions," snowplowing, facilities, and "recreation-related projects."

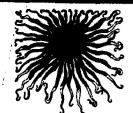

The Forest Service and other agencies involved are currently gathering more input from the public by way of mail in questionnaires and direct contact during the Kirtland Warbler guided tours and at National Forest recreational areas.

After further review, the Forest Service expects a decision to be made in September as far as what fees to implement in the Rec Fee Demo Program. At the designated sites the appropriate permits will be required, starting January 1, 1999.

After that, the Forest Service says it will closely monitor the Rec Fee Demo Program, and make evaluations from there.

Primary election to be held on August 4

by Caleb Casey Staff Writer

The following is a list of the candidates seeking election to the Crawford County Board of Commissioners, organized by District.

The "County of Crawford" map to the right shows the location and boundaries of the six Crawford County Districts. (District #1 is Grayling.)

It should be noted that Frank Foguth, District #4 candidate, has dropped out of the race due to a potential conflict of interest with his job.

"Since I turned in my petition I've learned that my occupation as a probation officer (employed by the state) could possibly put me at risk for 'conflict of interest," Foguth said. "I want nothing more than to give to this community (without any pay); however, if there is any potential problems with my livelihood I cannot take that risk."

In order to be on the ballot, candidates had to file a nominating petition with the County Clerk by 4 p.m. on May 12. Candidates also had the option of paying a $100 filing fee in place of submitting the petition.

They also had to provide an 'affidavit of identity' to the County Clerk when filing for candidacy.

Candidates must be at least 18 years of age and a registered voter. They must also be a resident of the District they wish to

On August 4 voters will have the opportunity to narrow down the field of candidates as they cast their ballots in the primary election.

The Fire Chiefs of Crawford County recognize the need for an efficient and properly staffed Emergency Dispatch Center. The Chiefs proposed to the Crawford County Board of Commissioners that they place a telephone surcharge on the August 4th Primary Ballot.

This surcharge is based on a flat rate single line charge on every phone user. This is not a charge based on your monthly phone usage! The 16% will cost you approximately $2.18 a month per telephone line or $26.16 yearly.

The Crawford County Fire Chiefs know the need for this important service and we're sure you do too!

The Crawford County E-911 proposal as it will appear on the August 4th ballot:

For the purpose of equipping, operating and maintaining the E-911 emergency service and Central dispatch costs, shall there be a monthly assessment by the County of Crawford of no more than sixteen (16%) percent of the highest monthly flat rate charge by a telephone service supplier for a single party access line ($2.18), upon telephone service users within the Crawford County 9-1-1 Service District for a period not to exceed four (4) years? Starting October 1, 1998 and ending September 30, 2002.

July 24-25 racing results

STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE P

Merritt Speedway held their 10th Annual Wood Tic 100 this weekend with preliminaries on Friday and features on Saturday night.

Forty nine late models and 48 Michigan Modifieds qualifying made one of the biggest events of the season.

Eric Spangler led the Late Models with quick time, with Joe Johnson, Earl Ingram and Dan Vance the next three fastest.

In the heat races it was Jeff Kohn over Steve Poel, Rusty Seaver over Kurt Messman, Mike Robinson over Tom Dusen, Shane Yoder over Rail Rokos and Johnson over Ingram.

It was Yoder, Terry Hill, Frank Seder and Bruce Vance in the Not so Fast 6 car dash.

Jerry Bazuin led the Michigan Modifieds with fast time ahead of Bob Kingen, Brent Banning and Jeep VanWormer.

John DeYoung over Roger Fussman, Bill Scott over Rick Urbach, Garry McKinley over Steve Sherwood, Kim Myas over Brian Tregear, and Mark Kurth over Dennis Boyce were the heat win-

The Not so Fast 6 car dash was won by Willard VanHaitsma over Rod Sattler, Kurth and Boyce.

All the features and fast car dashes were Saturday night.

Bruce Vance won the 33 lap odd feature and went on to win the 34 lap main event, capping off a great night that started with him singing the National Anthem to start the pro-were Marty Buffum, Spangler, Brent Banning and Kohn.

Marcoullier, having one of his best nights of the season, won the even feature over Seder, Yoder, Johnson, Bob Wilson and Rokos.

The first Last Chance race was won by Bill Trueblood ahead of Kevin Nelson, Dan deLong, Larry Aldrich and Dan Hekkema.

Dave Springer took the second Last Chance race over Mark Pomranky, Phil Hendershot, Don Biddle and Ron Zelke.

Johnson won the dash ahead of Ingram, Dan Vance and Spangler.

In his second time on dirt this year, Ken Payton won the main event for Michigan Modifieds, leading Bill Oliver, Brook Braisington and fourth fastest Mark Kurth.

Darryl Chappel won the odd feafollowed by Oliver, VanHaitsma, Schram and Banning. Braisington won the even feature over Payton, Kurth, Kingen and Bob Sattler.

The first Last Chance race was won by Bobby Murany ahead of Behind Vance in the odd feature Greg Wangler, Bill Whittington Gary Eisenga and Wilber Fick. Dennis Boyce won the even feature in a cloud of smoke as his motor let go on the last lap. He managed to hold on to the win over Dave Mairose, Roger Fussman, Rick Young and Jeep VanWormer. VanWormer won the dash after a couple weeks of bad luck.

The Pro Trucks came on Saturday night to race and J.T. Anderson won the feature race over next fastest finishers Ron Hill, Matt Mead and Matt Saxton.

The race had to be red flagged when Rollie Anderson pulled into the infield with an unknown injury and the ambulance had to tend to him before the race could resume. Schram and Hill won the heats and John Schneider won the dash ahead of Saxton, Hacker and Schram.

August 1 will be Abel Manufactured Housing Late Model VIP night, with $1000 in winnings available.

There will be a full show with Late Models, Michigan Modifieds, Pro Trucks and Street Stocks.

by Donna Thomson Wednesday Ladies League

Another beautiful day for the Wednesday Ladies League and so far we have had a banner year weather wise.

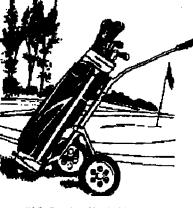

Today in Flight A, Jeanne Thompson and Joan Miller tied for low net of 36 and there was a three-way tie for low putts of 16 between Sally McNamara, Kathy Olson and Donna Thomson.

In Flight B, Doris Birtcher and Ann Latusek, both had a low net of 36 and another threeway tie for low putts of 16 between Jean Arwood, Louise Hatfield and JoAn Phillips.

In Flight C, Bev McNamara had a low net of 33 and Sue Brenner had low putts of 14.

In Flight D, Balkis Shippy had a low net of 31 and Thelma Madsen had low putts of 16.

Also today, Joyce Ross had a birdie on #11 and there were four chip-ins, Jean Arwood had one on #16, Louise Hatfield on #16, Sally McNamara on #17 and Thelma Madsen on #10.

We then had vegetable or beef lasagna, rolls, salad and dessert.

I also want to mention the wood carving on #11 of a golf bag and clubs has now been painted. Love these little touches that make our club unique.

That's all "fore" now.

EAST LANSING — Physicians. patients and legislators joined together at the State Capitol Building to voice support for the federal Patients' Bill of Rights currently pending in Congress.

The federal Patients' Bill of Rights, introduced by Congressman John Dingell (D-Dearborn), and cosponsored by Congresswoman Debbie Stabenow (D-Lansing), would guarantee patients' basic rights when dealing with their Rights would include a full disclosure of what is covered and not covered by a health plan, an independent appeals process, liability for denial or delay of care, coverage for emergency rooms when a patient feels it is necessary and elimination of all "gag" rules that interfere with the doctor/patient relationship.

"Our health care system is changing rapidly," said James E. Waun, MD, a Lansing anesthesiologist representing the 14,000-member Michigan State Medical Society (MSMS). "Sometimes rules and regulations don't change as quickly as they should.

"No one is here today to condemn our health plans or managed care organizations," said Doctor Waun, who serves as vice chair of the MSMS Committee on Bioethics, "but we all do have some concerns about our health care that we feel need to be addressed by our government that is essentially 'us'.'

Joining MSMS were representatives from the Michigan Partners for Patient Advocacy including the American Cancer Society-Michigan Division, the American Diabetes Association-Michigan Division, the National Kidney Foundation of Hemophilia the Michigan, Foundation of Michigan, the Leukemia Society of America, the American Lung Association, the Michigan Pharmacists Association, Michigan Psychological Association and the Crohns & Colitis Foundation, among others.

(D-Okemos), and Lynne Martinez (D-Lansing) also spoke in support of the federal legislation, as did representatives from Dingell's and Stabenow's offices.

Currently, only Rep. Dingell's bill -HR 3605 and S 1890- includes all of the necessary provisions for a true Patients' Bill of Rights, Doctor

"We salute Rep. Dingell for his efforts on behalf of our patients, and we hope our patients across Michigan will ask their own representatives and senators to support the Dingell bill," Doctor Waun said.

"We also commend Rep. Stabenow for her early support in co-sponsoring this important legislation," Doctor Waun said, "and for all of the hard work she has done to improve health care during her tenure in state government and in Washington."

This legislation is very similar to the Michigan Patient Bill of Rights passed in 1996, but it includes a provision that makes HMOs liable for the denial or delay of necessary covered treatment options, Doctor Waun said. The Michigan Partners for Patient Advocacy is supporting Michigan Rep. Laura Baird's HMO liability bill which already has passed the House.

The federal legislation also is different than Michigan's in that it eliminates the ERISA pre-emption. Employee Retirement Insurance Security Act, ERISA, was well-meaning legislation when passed, Doctor Waun said, but it contained a loophole that doctors believe has been misinterpreted by the courts, allowing employers to offer about half of America's employees a health plan that operates outside of state insurance regu-

Regional TB testing set for northeast

Department of California is supporting a regional TB testing requirement, as opposed. to a statewide testing requirement, on Michigan cattle originating in Alcona, Alpena, Montmorency, Oscoda and Presque Isle counties. The news follows Michigan's June 17 announcement that bovine TB has been confirmed in one beef cow from that region.

"California's action allows the State of Michigan to continue to concentrate its efforts and resources in the priority region," said Department Agriculture (MDA) Director Dan Wyant. "We remain committed to eradicating this disease from all animals in northeast Michigan as soon as possible. In the meantime, we are pleased that livestock farmers in the rest of Michigan are not required to test for a disease they do not have."

Bovine TB has occurred in northeast Michigan because of unique and unusual conditions existing there, scientists say. The prevalence of deer feeding, abnormally high deer populations and deer congregation at feeding sites have allowed the disease to establish in this area.

MDA and U.S. Department of Agriculture Director Dan Wyant Agriculture (USDA) veterinarians announced that the State of have been vigorously testing cattle and goats in the five-county area since 1995, when a wild deer was confirmed to have the disease. Since then, more than 9,096 cattle and goats and over 8,600 deer have been tested for TB. One cow and 149 wild white-tail deer have been found to have the disease, along with one captive deer farm.

> State Veterinarian Dr. Michael Chaddock said that state and federal veterinarians are nearly done testing all eligible livestock within five miles of where TB-infected wild deer have been found. Rigorous testing will occur until all known test-eligible cattle and goats in the five-county area have been tested.

> The TB testing requirements that have been implemented by California, New York, Virginia and Wisconsin affect only live animals sold or shipped to those states. Animals bound directly for slaughter are already routinely inspected for TB. Michigan cattle owners are encouraged to contact their vetericattle to another state, to learn upto-date health requirements.

growing bacterial disease that most commonly infects the respiratory system. This disease is most commonly spread from infected animals to susceptible animals in confined or overcrowded environmental con-

Medicare is now covering seniors' diabetes supplies

The American Diabetes Association is informing the 4.2 million Medicare eligible patients diagnosed with diabetes about newly covered benefits to help control their disease.

Beginning July 1, 1998, all Medicare Part B and Medicare managed care enrollees with diabetes will have their blood glucose testing supplies covered by Medicare.

Under the new policy, all people with diabetes enrolled in Medicare Part B or Medicare managed care will receive affordable coverage of blood glucose monitors, test strips, and lancets. These benefits are available for all Medicare patients with diabetes regardless of whether they control their disease with diet and exercise, oral medications, or insulin.

currently the only method blood sugar in control available for patients with diabetes to monitor blood sugar levels and make necessary day-to-day changes in the self-managment of the disease.

In order for Medicare enrollees to receive these benefits, a physician must prescribe the supplies and document on the prescription how often self-monitoring is required for the patient.

"Diabetes is a very serious and often expensive disease. These new Medicare benefits are a major advance in helping millions of seniors afford the items necessary to condiabetes," trol Christine Beebe, MS, RD, CDE, LD, President, Healthcare and Education of the American Diabetes Association. Facts about diabetes

Twelve percent of the United States population over age 65, or 4.2 million Americans, are diagnosed with diabetes. Diabetes is a serious disease that affects the body's ability to produce or respond properly to insulin, a hormone that allows blood sugar to enter the body and be used for energy.

Without the proper training and tools like blood glucose testing supplies and self-management training, people with the disease are more likely to develop long-term complications, including kidney failure, heart disease, stroke, blindness and amputations.

Diabetes costs this country nearly $100 billion each vear in healthcare and related costs for treatment and lost productivity. Medicare alone spends nearly $27 billion, or about 25% of the program's total yearly budget, to treat people with diabetes.

betes. Entitled "Now You Can Afford To Be Serious About Diabetes," the public education program will inform people with diabetes of the need to control their blood glucose level how the new Medicare benefit makes blood glucose testing more affordable.

Campaign elements will include patient and healthcare provider guides explaining the Medicare benefits, print and radio public service advertisements to reach out to consumers, and a variety of activities over the coming months. The American Diabetes Association is receiving support from the makers of Accu-Chek for the campaign.

Medicare's coverage of blood glucose testing supplies is a direct result of the efforts of the Speaker BETES (1-800-342-2383) or of the U.S. House of Representatives, Gingrich (R-GA)

President Bill Clinton. Last year their leadership prompted Congress to direct the Medicare program to cover these supplies for all Medicare Part B patients with diabetes.

Other Members Congress who helped make the benefits a reality include Representative Bill Thomas (R-CA), Representative Elizabeth Furse (D-OR), Representative George Nethercutt (R-WA) and Senator John Breaux (D-LA) "Without their commitment to fighting diabetes and its complications; these benefits would not be available to most patients," added Beebe.

NOTES FROM THE PINES

by Joanne Howd, Hartwick Pines State Park

A community always appreciates when local businesses provide goods and/or services for special events held within the area. Over the 4th of July weekend, Cartwright & Danewell and Carlisle Paddles Inc., contributed canoes, kayaks and paddles for Hartwick Pines State Park's Hydrology Days. On behalf of the staff of Hartwick Pines State Park, we appreciate the support and involvement in our community.

On August 1 at 8 p.m., biologist and taxidermist Jan VanHoesen will present an educational program featuring a live lynx. Ms. VanHoesen acquired the infant lynx for the purpose of creating and instituting an educational program on endangered species. Park Interpreter, Ann Stephens, calls Ms. VanHoesen "A good-will ambassador for the lynx." It is Ms. VanHoesen's goal to increase the public's knowledge of the status of the lynx in Michigan and related wildlife habitat issues.

The weekend of July 18 and 19 was Hartwick Pines State Park's annual Wood Shaving Days Festival. Sunny days and warm temperatures brought many people to the festival, thus making it a success. The festival was kicked-off on Saturday morning with the official opening and dedication of the new logging exhibit "From Landlookers to River Hogs," Visitors enjoyed the numerous demonstrations and displays. Adding to the festivities was the lively dulcimer band. If you missed Wood Shaving Days, you still have the opportunity to experience our Black Iron Days Festival on August 22 and 23.

Thompson attends summer youth programs

Forrest Thompson of Grayling recently spent a week at this year's Summer Youth Programs held at Michigan Tech University, joining students from across America for the first week of the program.

Over four weeks, more than 1,000 junior high and high school students explored engineering, science and math, computers, art, and outdoor activities. Thompson studied radio and audio production.

A freshman at Grayling High School, he is the son of Lynn and Randy Thompson of Grayling.

Price attends Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation

Amie Price of Grayling High School attended the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation Leadership seminar. The three-day event was held at the Kellogg Center on the campus of Michigan State University. Sophomores were chosen for this experience, because they are at an age when setting future goals is critical.

The Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation (HOBY) is a program that encourages civic and corporate responsibility and develops leadership in young people. Each May, schools throughout the state nominate one outstanding sophomore to be their "Ambassador" to the seminar. Students have an opportunity to interact with distinguished leaders from business, science, education, government and other professions. The forums include a great variety of topics and provide opportunities for question and answer sessions.

All financial support for HOBY comes from the private sector and service organizations. This year, over 400 "Ambassadors" attended the two seminars that were held in Michigan. Nationally, more than 14,000 students will be attending one of HOBY's ninety seminars. These three-day events are being held in all fifty states, Canada and Mexico.

David W. Vogel, representing Citizens For A Safe Community, outlined the August ballot proposals for Sheriff's Department and E-911 and distributed informational brochures.

BUSINESS:

1. Randy Frykberg and Glen Roberts of Wade-Trim submitted a proposal for engineering services to provide a feasibility study for sanitary sewage collection system and wastewater treatment system. The proposed study read would include Lake Margrethe. AuSable Trail Ole Dam Road, Karen Woods Roberts Road, Wilcox and Jones Lake Roads. N. Down to Thendara, and M-72, Industrial Park to Four Mile Road. The cost of the study is $16,000 and would provide the feasibility of the potential for Grayling Township to construct its own sanitary wastewater treatment plant and associated sanitary sewer collection system. The study would also investigate the potential of utilizing the existing WWTP at the Grayling National Guard complex. The proposal, including map is available for inspection at the Grayling Township Hall. The matter will be on the August 12, 1998, Township Board agenda.

2. Motion by Ashton, second by O'Mara, to recess regular session and open PUBLIC HEARING for Industrial Facilities Exemption Certificate, Northern Pure Ice, applicants. All aves, motion carried.

Supervisor opened public hearing at 8:03 p.m. He explained that Northern Pure Ice is requesting a twelve year tax abatement on 50% of the plant's State Equalized Value. The plant is proposed to be valued at $2,100,000 as opposed to $200,000 before the rehabilitation. The plant is open and has brought 25 new jobs to the community.

Floor opened to the public: Norm Bancroft: Not in favor. N.P. Ice bought out many other ice companies. They did not get tax abatements, why should this one?

Robe Reutter, owner, clarified that most of the jobs being filled by local people or people that are moving to the community because of the job.

It was noted that even with a tax abatement the plant will pay five times the tax as the previous abandoned facility.

5. Ray Swiercz, Road Commission for Crawford County and Craig Schripsema Northwest Design Group, updated the Board on status of North Down River Road rahabilitation project. The project has now been adjusted to crush and shape and then repave thickness and width adequate for the present and future numerous traffic with high percentage of heavy vehicles. Twelve foot driving lanes and six-foot shoulders, with three feet of shoulder paved have been selected. Pavement width is thirty-feet and its thickness is three inches.

Point of ending is proposed to be 1/4 mile east of Wilcox Bridge Road, where quality of the existing road surface becomes very noticeable better. A budget of $229,000 would complete 1.6 miles from Isenhauer to Wilcox (excluding the I-75 viaduct). An additional $50,000 contribution from the Township would complete the funding required for this proposal. Less funding would change either the point of beginning or

The original proposal began just east of Michigan Avenue but that portion has been eliminated due to requirements that major bridge work be undertaken which made the project financially non-feasible. The consensus of the Board was that the original $50,000 approved in the spring and included in the 1998-99 General Fund Budget remain in place, however, there was no motion to appropriate additional funding toward the project. Beginning and ending points of the project will be studied and authorized according to best use of funds.

6. Pat Merrill, County Environmental Monitor, is proposing organization of a Household Hazardous Waste Day. Estimated cost is $12-$15,000. Would Township participate financially?

Motion by Nunn, second by O'Mara, the Grayling Township supports the concept of Household Hazardous Waste Day and is willing to participate financially in conjunction with the other townships and City of Grayling in such a project. All ayes, motion carried.

7. Cemetery Operation Agreement of 7-14-81 was distributed for informational review purposes.

8. Motion by Nunn, second by Medler, to accept Mill Town Sand & Gravel bid to clear and gravel extension of Township Hall parking lot and proceed to get paving bids and estimates for moving and adding lights. All ayes, motion carried.

9. Motion by Ashton, second by O'Mara, to accept the recommendation of the Grayling Township Planning Commission and adopt Ordinance 98-3, which amends Grayling Township Zoning Ordinance 92-2, Section 3.0, 20.1, and 40. by creating a definition of schedule of regulations for Communication Towers. All ayes, motion

10. Motion by O'Mara, second by Medler, to accept the recommendation of the Grayling Township Planning Commission and adopt Ordinance 98.4, which amends Grayling, Township Zoning Ordinance 92-2, Section 12, by adding warehousing as a Conditional use in the (C-1) General Commercial District.

All ayes, motion carried. 11. Motion by Nunn, second by Medler, that primary Township attorney for FY 98-99 be Douglas C. Dosson, but other counsel may be consulted as deemed necessary. All ayes, motion carried

For The Week Of August 2-8

ARIES March 21-April 20

Getting ahead of the rat race will dominate your thoughts this week. Take time to analyze your ambitions and find ways to meet your goals. Tuesday will be a red-letter day for you. Enjoy it because things will get tougher at work as the week wears on.

TAURUS April 21-May 21

It's time to take stock of your life before moving ahead. Strong feelings of romantic love and affection will be with you all week, but you need to end old relationships before starting anything new. By Friday, questions you've had should clear up.

CEMINI May 22-June 21

Your imagination will play a big role for you this week, creatively and in the romance department. Share your thoughts with someone you care about. And don't be afraid to express your love in a way only you could. You'll be glad

CANCER June 22-July 22

Take the time to express your innermost feelings to that special person in your life. Cap that off with a romantic getaway. This week, you'll be busy finding the best place for that getaway, but try to wrap up all your research by the end of the week.

LEO July 23-August 23

You'll gain a clearer understanding of how to reach your goals this week. Keep an open mind and reach out to opportunities that may help you achieve them. Plan a family outing for this weekend before things get really busy with all the fall activities.

VIRGO August 24-September 22

If you can't accomplish everything on your list, go for the things that are most important. To help you keep from having too much to do in the future, try simplifying your life. Even though you're busy, it's very important that you take time to unwind.

LIBRA September 23-October 23

Your marriage, partnership or union will be the focus this week. It's time to share your ideas and be willing to listen to constructive criticism. Whatever you do or say, remember to control your emotions. Don't rush into any plans; take time to think them through.

SCORPIO October 24-November 22

Slow down! Once you do, you'll be able to take more control of your life and plans again. Strengthen your current relationships by learning to express your inner feelings. Then you'll start to gain real acceptance and understanding

SAGITTARIUS November 23-December 21

Communication is the key to your week. Listen to others to gain information and strategy for your plans. Learn to share your feelings. Above all, it is important to sho others that you are not better than them, merely different. Thursday will be a key day for you.

CAPRICORN December 22-January 20

During the next few months, take the steps and the time to get closer to loved ones. Your hurried life has kept you so busy, but it's time to pause and remember those around you. Once you slow down, that stress you've been feeling will ease up.

AQUARIUS January 21-February 18

Don't let your curiosity get the best of you this week. You'll be anxious to know what's coming next. Maybe knowing what is coming is not in your control, but you still can be a big influence in a close friend's life. Be careful to listen to the whole story!

PISCES February 19-March 20

Keep a positive attitude when looking at things in your life this week. Events may be puzzling, but be sure to keep ... up that good attitude. Rely on your aire intuition to help you get through those events. With that positive attitude, you'll come out on top.

For Entertainment Purposes Only

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

MANGO GLAZED SALMON WITH TROPICAL SALSA (4 SERVINGS)

4 med. -sized thick salmon fillets or steaks Large pinch curry powder and cayenne pepper 2T. mango chutney (available at most supermarkets 2 t. Dijon-style mustard

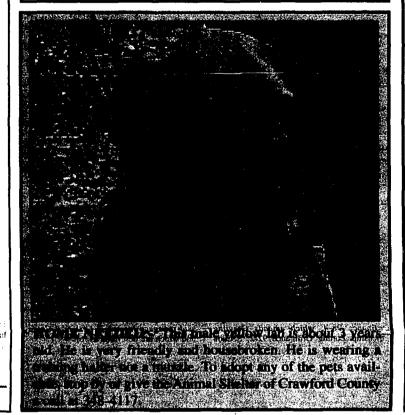

1 c. finely diced fresh papaya or pineapple 1/4 c. each minced red onion and diced red pep-

Salsa

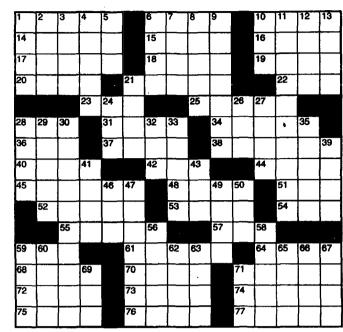

1/2 t. minced jalapeno chili 1/4 c. lime juice 1/4 c. finely sliced scallion greens

Preheat the broiler or prepare the grill. Rub each salmon fillet with salt, a little curry powder and cayenne. In a small bowl combine the mango chutney and mustard. Brush the salmon with the manao glaze and broil or grill for 4 minutes on each side, brushing it again with the glaze after turning.

In the meantime, combine the remaining salsa ingredients together and let stand while the salmon is cooking. Spoon some salsa on top of each salmon fillet and serve.

HEALTHLINE - CHILD'S EXPLORATIONS MAY LEAD TO RABIES

by Linda DeMarchis, M.A., Health Educator, District Health Department No. 10

Q. We live outside the city and now that spring and summer are fast approaching, I worry about my children exploring in the many wooded areas around our home. It concerns me that they might pick up some of the small animals they might run could contact rabies if they are bitten?

A. At this time of the year, the potential for animal bites is extremely high. Whenever such a bite occurs, the chance for rabies could possibly exist. Rabies is a fatal disease caused by a virus that attacks the nervous system. This virus lives in the saliva and brain tissue of infected animals. It infects pets, livestock, wildlife and people who come in contact with infected saliva or brain tissue. This happens when a bite or scratch occurs or there is accidental contact between open wounds/mucous membranes and infected saliva. Household pets, farm animals and even people may possibly contract rabies from infected wildlife or stray animals.

Nationwide, animals that are considered at risk for spreading rabies are: foxes, skunks, raccoons, bats, coyotes, bobcats, unvaccinated cats and dogs, and even some woodchucks and ferrets. In 1997, a total of 28 animals were determined to be across. Is there any chance that they rabies positive in Michigan. All were bats except one raccoon, and they subsequently exposed household cats and dogs as well as humans. This underscores the need to vaccinate household pets. However, any of the animals listed above could also be carriers of rabies in this state as well. An epidemic of rabies in raccoons has occurred in neighboring states and may be of concern here sometime in

THE RESERVE THE PROPERTY OF TH

All unfamiliar animals should be treated with caution. Warn children not to touch wild animals or unfamiliar dogs and cats. No wild animais should be kept as pets To discourage scavengers from residing near your house, keep garbage tightly covered. Make sure your own pets are vaccinated against rables.

Secure screens and doors to keep wild animals out of your house. Call for assistance if a wild animal or bat enters your home. Bats are a particular concern to health department officials. Although excellent consumers of insect pests, a small percentage of bats are infected with rabies. These bats appear normal in all respects to the ordinary observers. Several years ago, a bat from this area was captured and tested for rabies with a positive result. Consequently, bats should never be touched with bare hands.

If after all your best efforts an animal bite should occur, the response should be as follows:

• If a bite occurs from any animal, allow it to bleed for several minutes then wash it thoroughly with soap and water. Don't soak the wound which may only increase other bacterial contamination.

 Contact your physician at once or if the bites are extensive and severe, take the victim to the hospital for treatment.

type and species of animals inflicted the bite, its size and color and, if someone's pet, the name and address of the owner. Also, have the child explain how the incident happened, if the animal was provoked or unprovoked, the time it happened and any unusual behavior on the part of the animal. Make sure you know and can tell health officials the victim's immunization status, what treatment you gave the bite at home, the location of the bite on the body and if there are any medical conditions that affect his or her immunity.

· Find out from the child what

· Call the Health Department to report the bite along with this other important information and call the Animal Control Authority to apprehend or confine this animal if necessary. Do not apprehend it yourself. Also do not kill the animal, since it may be needed to run tests. If killing the animal becomes necessary, take care not to damage the head or subject it to freezing.

· After the bite has been examined, the physician will determine whether rabies treatment is necessary. If it is, it should be started within 24 hours. Various factors must be considered first. The most important determining factor is the animal involved. Squirrels, chipmunks, gophers, gerbils, hamsters, rabbits, mice, moles, shrews and rats are not considered a source of rabies except in very rare cases. Antirabies treatment is usually not initiated for these bites. However skunks, bobcats, raccoons, foxes, bats, coyotes, and unimmunized dogs, cats and ferrets are always a risk. If a bite occurs from one of these, further evaluation and followup are necessary. The Health Department will assist the physician in determining what the recommended treatment should be.

Know the signs and symptoms of rabies. Any change in any animal's expected behavior could be a sign of rabies. An animal may be strangely shy or too easily approached. It may appear confused and sluggish, or unusually excitable and aggressive. Other worrisome signs include daytime activity by a normally nocturnal animal, staggering while walking, a strange inability to eat or drink, drooling, convulsions and frothing at the mouth, paralysis, or a change in the sound of an animal's voice.

Fortunately, the occurrence of rabies in domestic animals has been decreasing, thanks to the combined efforts of veterinarians, animal control, and health officials. However, the increasing numbers of cases among wild animals cannot be ignored. Treating these wild animals with a healthy respect, keeping them at a distance, and vaccinating your own pets can greatly reduce the risk of rabies.

House approves increase in

Members of congress who have waged a long-running effort to bring financial relief to thousands of cashstrapped counties won a victory Tuesday when the U.S. House approved an increase in the amount of money the federal government pays counties in lieu of taxes.

Michigan's portion of the payments in lieu of taxes, called PILT, will increase from $1.3 million to more than $1.5 million. The increase was included as an amendment to the Interior Appropriations Bill, one of 14 legislative bills which funds federal government operations. The measure still awaits Senate approval.

Rep. Bart Stupak (D-Mich.) whose northern Michigan district will receive most of Michigan's increase, spent much of the week prior to the vote petitioning House members to approve a hike in the PILT payments, which have not been adjusted in years.

In a speech on the House floor prior to Tuesday's vote, Stupak, a co-sponsor of the amendment, said the increase was a simple issue of fairness to counties which must provide basic community services, but which are burdened with large tracts of non-taxable federal land.

Stupak cited Gogebic County in Michigan's Upper Peninsula as an example of a county adversely affected by federal holdings. "Approximately 70 percent of the land in Gogebic County is in the Ottawa National Forest," Stupak

Michigan's 1st Congressional District also includes four national parks. including Keweenaw Historical National Park in Houghton, Keweenaw and Ontonagon counties, Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore in Leelanau County, and Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore, which occupies much of Alger County.

"Rural communities rely on PILT payments to provide essential services such as education, law enforcement, emergency fire and medical, search and rescue, solid waste management, road maintenance and other health and human services," Stupak said.

"Since its adoption in 1976, however, the PILT program has neither kept pace with its authorized funding levels, nor with the true costs of providing services in support of federal lands.

"In fact, the PILT program is currently funded at less than half its authorized level," Stupak said.

Following the vote, Stupak said it would have been irresponsible for the federal government to take lands off tax rolls and then continue to deny payment of just compensation.

"This is only a small increase in the PILT program, but its impact and importance to rural counties is large," Stupak said.

PILT program increases, which had received bipartisan support, were matched with cuts in fossil fuel development programs.

Stupak's amendment received bipartisan support, with co-sponsorship by Rep. Bernie Sanders (I-Vt.), Rep. James Oberstar (D-Minn.), Rep. Christopher Cannon (R-Utah) and Rep. Ron Lewis (R-Ky.), who all played key roles in gathering the needed votes for passage.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE VOTERS OF CRAWFORD COUNTY REGARDING THE AUGUST 4TH COUNTY COMMISSIONERS PRIMARY ELECTION

Ladies & Gentlemen,

We have decided to speak out regarding the upcoming Primary Election to be held August 4th and recommend for your consideration the following four candidates for the Office of County Commissioner.

HAROLD GOLNICK (Republican) District #1 LYNNETTE S. CORLEW (Republican) District #4 ELIZABETH H. WIELAND (Democrat) District #5 TERRY BEARDSLEE (Republican) District #6

We are supporting these individuals because they collectively represent many years of experience as business, civic and military leaders who have held positions of responsibility and authority and will be neither awed nor corrupted by the office. We are confident that as long time residents, they harbor no self serving personal agenda, and that they will conduct themselves with integrity and common courtesy in representing all of the people of this community. These are honorable ladies & gentlemen who will apply themselves to their elected positions pursuant to the statutory dictates of the office without attempting to micro manage the rest of the county, leaving that function to those elected officials who are not only constitutionally charged with that responsibility but far more qualified and experienced in that regard. Having known these candidates personally for years, we cannot imagine their wasting time engaging in petty politics, but rather will use that time and their efforts to concentrate on the problems which need to be resolved.

Believing that these are not times that call for "politics as usual" but rather it is truly "time for a change", we are not interested in telling you how to vote, only in asking that you consider our recommendations. Most importantly, please remember to vote.

Thank you,

105th District

Michigan Politics (IMP), the lead for the 105th District race now belongs to Ken Bradstreet of Gaylord. Bradstreet began campaigning in late April, and has gone from unknown newcomer to front-runner in just three months.

Bradstreet is the choice of Right To Life, and Citizens For Traditional Values. Bradstreet has the only endorsement issued to date by any major gunowner's group, Michigan Coalition of Responsible Gun Owners. He is also endorsed by the Michigan Conservative Union.

IMP is published by Michigan's premiere political pundit, Bill Ballenger. Ballenger has appeared Television's "Off the Record" as well as appearances on CNN and MacNeil/Lehrer.

The July 20 IMP edition concludes that ". . . Bradstreet has the narrowlegislative ally pretty close to the way campaign.

"We are elated that we have made this kind of progress," Bradstreet. "We have forced the other candidates to talk about issues.

"My closest opponent has even appeared to change his view on the gun issue since I got into the race. I suppose it's better to flip-flop and end up right than to stay wrong on the issue for the sake of consistency."

Public Notice

The Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations will conduct an accreditation survey on Mercy Health Services North including Amicare Homecare & Hospice, Grayling, Michigan on AUGUST 17,18,19, & 20 1998, the purpose of the survey will be to evaluate the organization's compliance with nationally established Joint Commission standards. The survey results will be used to determine whether, and the conditions under which accreditation should be awarded the organization.

Joint Commission standards deal with organizational quality of care issues and the safety of the environment in which care is provided. Anyone believing that he or she has pertinent and valid information about such matters may request a public information interview with the Joint Commission's field representatives at the time of the survey. Information presented at the interview will be carefully evaluated for relevance to the accreditation process. Secrets for a public information interview must be made in writing and should be sent to the Joint Commission no later than five (5) working days before the survey begins. The request must also indicate the nature of the information to be provided at the interview. Such requests should be addressed to:

Division of Accreditation Operation
Grganization Lisison
Joint Commission on Accreditation of Heelthcare Organizations
One Renaissance Boulevard
Oakbrook Terrace, Winois 60181

The Joint Commission will acknowledge such requests in writing or by telephone and will inform the organization of the request of any interview. The organization will, in turn, notify the interviewee of the date, time, and place of the meeting.

The notice is provided in accordance with the Joint Commission's requirements.
